Connectivity for Central Asia (C4CA)

01/2025 - 06/2028

Regional

CYBERSECURITY

Description

Regional initiative for the establishment of enabling environment for digital connectivity. The initiative has four components, one of which is capacity building for cybersecurity. The aim to support digitally-driven socio-economic inclusion in Central Asia. The Connectivity for Central Asia (C4CA) Action fosters safe and inclusive satellite connectivity access and use, particularly for women, youth and further marginalised groups.

Geographical area

Central Asia

Countries

Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, Uzbekistan

Budget

24,000,000 €

Funded by

EU - DG INTPA

Downloaded from EU CyberNet website https://www.eucybernet.eu/project/connectivity-for-central-asia-c4ca/

Implementer

Expertise France

e-Governance Academy

Finnish Institute of Public Management

Lithuanian Central Project Management Agency

Latvian Central Finance and Contracting Agency

Comment

Downloaded from EU CyberNet website https://www.eucybernet.eu/project/connectivity-for-central-asia-c4ca/